

LEADING IN THE MUSLIM WORLD: WHAT WOULD BENAZIR DO TODAY?

AN ASSEMBLY TO HELP LAUNCH THE BENAZIR BHUTTO LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

The daylong assembly will examine what it means to lead in the Muslim world and reflect on what Benazir Bhutto might have been able to accomplish under today's circumstances as Pakistan's prime minister. A goal for the day is to develop a plan to support Muslim students at Harvard through fellowship support, co-curricular activities drawing on Benazir's HR '73 classmates, and public education to a wider audience.

CONVENER

Jacqueline Bhabha

Director of Research, François-Xavier Bagnoud Center for Health and Human Rights; Professor of the Practice of Health and Human Rights, Department of Global Health and Population, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health; Jeremiah Smith Jr. Lecturer, Harvard Law School.

DECEMBER 5, 2016
9:00AM–4:00PM

CGIS South | Belfer Center Case Study Room, S020
1730 Cambridge Street | Cambridge, MA 02138

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

ClassACT HR '73 has launched the Benazir Bhutto Leadership Program to create positive change by supporting promising individuals from predominantly Muslim countries who have a proven commitment to the principles our classmate, Benazir Bhutto, espoused—democracy, equality for women, reconciliation of religious and cultural differences, and education for all without gender or religious bias.

For more information, please email ClassACTHR73@gmail.com or visit classacthr73.org.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

wcfia.harvard.edu/event/leading-in-the-muslim-world-12-05-16

Weatherhead Center
FOR INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
HARVARD UNIVERSITY