HARVARD FACULTY SPEAKERS

ROBERT H. BATES | The Development Dilemma: Security, Prosperity, and a Return to History

JASON BECKFIELD | Political Sociology and the People's Health

SUGATA BOSE | The Nation as Mother: And Other Visions of Nationhood

IEVA JUSIONYTE | Threshold: Emergency Responders on the US-Mexico Border

GEORGE PAUL MEIU | Ethno-erotic Economies: Sexuality, Money, and Belonging in Kenya

PIPPA NORRIS | Cultural Backlash: Trump, Brexit, and Authoritarian Populism

DANIEL M. SMITH | Dynasties and Democracy: The Inherited Incumbency Advantage in Japan

Listen to Harvard faculty authors present their global books in a café-style setting. A panel of Weatherhead Center Faculty Associates will each give an eight-minute "speed talk" about their recent book, launching us into compelling issues from around the world, featuring stories and research from Kenya, Japan, India, the United Kingdom, and Mexico, to name a few countries represented thematically in this two-hour event. Refreshments will be provided.
